

The Owingsville Outlook.

SWORN

For that 55,407 copies of Outlook were circulated during 52 weeks; average, 1,077 weekly. Bought many more than that of Kellough.

VOL. XVIII.

 at Dawson & Nixon's.

Crown flour $2.50 per cwt. cash at Dawson & Nixon's.

Arbuckle's coffee 20c per package cash at Dawson & Nixon's.

Granulated sugar 17 lbs. for $1
 cash, at Dawson & Nixon's.

7 bars Chinese Laundry soap for 25c cash at Dawson & Nixon's.

Born, Thursday, Aug. 20th, 1896, to Mr. and Mrs. James H. Crouch, a daughter.

FOR RENT.—Rooms in the Elliott building; also a dwelling house.
 J. L. ELLIOTT.

If you want groceries and have the cash to spend it will pay you to call on Dawson & Nixon.

WANTED.—A live correspondent that will send a good weekly batch of news items from Bethel or vicinity.

We learn that Pearce & Fant's Bank, at Flemingsburg, was burglarized Monday night. No particulars.

Hon. A. W. Bascom made a political speech at the Court-house last Saturday afternoon to a fair-sized audience.

Orla C. Harris bought of Thomas H. Brown the house and lot occupied by Daniel Sheehan, on Slate Avenue, for $600.

Christian Church parsonage, on Main street, is for sale.

B. Goodpaster on Tuesday shipped to Marion county to be fed 25 aged mules bought of different people in this county.

Prof. M. C. LaPelle, of color, is receiving the condolences of his friends by reason of the death of his 16-month-old son of whooping cough.

The protracted meeting at Wyoming, conducted by Elders Forrer and Porter, will probably continue throughout this week. There had been 20 additions up to last Sunday.

The earth shut out the sun's light from the moon Saturday, but it can only be vouched for by astronomers and those spectators who were where the clouds didn't interfere.

Bills are posted for a big political gathering of Republicans at Ashland Friday, Aug. 28th. Bradley, Yerkes and several big guns will be there; also, possibly, Speaker Tom Reed, of Maine.

GENUINE TESTIMONIAL.—S. C.
 Mott, a Bath county boy, now of Nortonville, Kansas, writes renewing his subscription "to the good old Outlook," as he calls it. Such testimonials have the pleasant effect of "warning the cockles of our heart."

BATH SEMINARY.—New doors have been put down, the walls papered, and new seats put in at Bath Seminary. The fall term will open next Monday. Elder G. W. Porter, Principal, with Miss Mary L. Ford First Assistant, and Miss McClintock Second Assistant, for the corps of teachers. It is hoped that a successful school will be taught.

Mrs. Perkins' Death.—The wife of Geo. Perkins, a carpenter who lives in Mattie Lee City, died Wednesday night of typhoid fever.
 His daughter also is expected to die at any moment of the same disease. —Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat.

Deceased and family formerly lived in this town. John Pieratt, of this county, wedded Miss Lana Perkins, her daughter.

SUNDAY MAIL.—The long-felt want of a Sunday mail from Preston to this town began to be supplied last Sunday, and will be continued indefinitely. The carrier leaves here at 11:20 a. m. and returns at 2 p. m. The town is indebted to Postmaster Perry for this convenience, and it is a decided benefit, as it breaks the long monotony of Sunday when for more than 24 hours the town is isolated from the great outside world.

RUNAWAY HORSE.—Sunday afternoon James Crooks, Jr., drove in a buggy a horse belonging to W. H.
 Rice, of Flat Creek, and hitched it in front of R. T. Gault's store. The horse got scared, broke loose and made a circle on the streets, causing other horses driven in vehicles to nearly run away. Some ladies were so alarmed that they left their buggies. The runaway horse got started towards his home and couldn't be stopped by the specta-tators.

ANOTHER G. A. R. REUNION.—The Thos. Clark Post, G. A. R., of Owingsville, will hold its first annual reunion at Preston on September 24th, 25th and 26th, 1896. The Committee on Arrangements is composed of Thos. Copher, Felix Clark, David Radtiff, Jas. K. Jackson and John S. Anderson. The booth privileges will be rented; sealed bids for same received by J.
 K. Jackson, at Olympia. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved.
 All Mexican, Confederate and Federal soldiers are invited. There will be able speakers, a good cornet band, and a procession twice each day. All the state attractions will be there. A great time is anticipated.

BRAVE YOUNG HOUSEWOMAN.— Last Saturday little Misses Mary Guggel and Rena Perry were out horseback riding. Mary's horse took fright near Mrs. Belle Allen's residence, ran off at full speed, and never checked until he reached Dr. Guggel's stable, where he was stopped. Those who saw it said Mary sat him like a true Diana Vernon, although they expected every instant to see her thrown and killed. Mary is a brave little lady and is quite a heroine now.

DR. ROBBINS' DEATH.—Dr. A. W.
 Robbins, of Salt Lick, died of typhoid fever at his home last Friday at 11:30 o'clock and was buried Saturday at the Dickerson burial ground. The surviving wife and children have the sympathy of their many friends.

Dr. Will Robbins was a native of Carter county and came to Salt Lick about four or five years ago.
 He was a successful physician, having a lucrative practice. He was a good citizen and a popular man and will be much missed in that community.

PUBLIC SALE.—Lee Rice, trustee, will sell on the premises in the town of Wyoming, this county, on Sept. 5th, 1896, all the personal property of F. M. Calvert, who is paralyzed and incapacitated for continuing his farming and merchandise business. The sale will include live stock, farming utensils, household wares, and a large stock of general merchandise. Mr.
 Calvert was a thrifty farmer and lived well. Hence he has a superior outfit of the goods mentioned, while the stock of merchandise is a valuable one and the only stock in an excellent place for trade in a good country. See large bills for particulars.

THE DEEP TOWN WELL.—Messrs.
 Pence & Lewis ceased their drilling in the town well Saturday, having reached a depth of 570 feet, without having struck artesian water. They will go to Sharps-burg, where they have a contract for sinking a similar well. It is hardly a question whether the Owingsville well will be of a benefit at all commensurate with the cost.
 It is doubtful whether it furnishes even a moderate supply of water, as a costly pump will have to be inserted, and a public pump is hard to keep in working order. Still, the experiment is of some use in demonstrating that artesian water is at best deep down below Owingsville, if existent at all beneath the town ridge.

Messrs. Pence & Lewis kindly furnished THE OUTLOOK with a record of the matter drilled through.
 It is a good thing to cut out and preserve for future reference. Ordinary seeps and veins of water were reached at various depths.
 The record is as follows:—

OWINGSVILLE TOWN, COURT-HOUSE YARD.
Surface soil and red dirt	18
Red limestone	2
Blue clay and soapstone	2
Blue limestone	15
Soapstone	17 1/2
Sandstone	3 1/2

D. T. GAULT'S DEATH.—As briefly announced in last week's issue, Mr.
 D. T. Gault died at his home in this town about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 18th, 1896. He had been sick for only a few days with stomach and bowel trouble before the attack became alarming.
 He was tenderly nursed, and the end came peacefully, in the presence of friends and members of the family.

The funeral took place the following Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The pall-bearers were H.
 D. Ewing, A. S. Thomas, B. F. Perry, J. W. Lane, P. F. Ewing, J. W.
 Hutchesson, J. J. Nesbitt, J. T. Kim-brough. Elder G. W. Porter conducted the services at the grave in the Owingsville Cemetery.

David Theodore Gault was born in Fleming county and reared at the village of Wyoming, this county, or in that vicinity. The only survivor of his father's family is Mrs. George Ann Ames, of Wyoming.

He wedded Miss Melissa Cox, of Scott county, who survives him.
 All their children survive: Annie (Mrs. James K. Jackson, of Olympia), Addie (Mrs. Thomas P. Hon-ak, of Prickly Ash), Robert, Artie (Mrs. Joseph Spencer, of east of town), Leona (Mrs. James A.
 Barnes, of Salt Lick), David (of Texas), Dora (Mrs. J. W. Cook, of Salt Lick), Bertie, Paul and Gano. Mr. Gault was a cabinet-maker and carpenter by trade, and moved to this town about twenty-five years ago. He was a quiet, temperate, good citizen, and he and his estimable wife raised and educated their large family of children to be a credit to themselves and to the community. All the daughters except the youngest, who is still at home, are happily married to prosperous husbands, who are among the best men in the county, and the widow and all her children are held in high esteem by the people. They have the sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement.

THE REUNION.—The annual reunion of Cartmill Post, G. A. R., was held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week, near Midland City, on the C. & O. Railway.

 While the grounds were not as pleasing as that on which the former reunions of this sort have been held, they were close to the railroad and visitors coming by rail had but a few steps to walk to reach the grove, thus saving extra hack fare formerly paid to ride to the grounds.

The first day was cool and pleasant, but the attendance was small, quiet and orderly.

Hon. Samuel J. Pugh was present and made a two-hours' speech on the questions of the day, and, judging from the close attention given him, and the frequent applause he received, his hearers were largely in sympathy with him.
 There being no other speakers on the ground, the old soldiers, at the command of Commander Elias McQuithy, formed a line and marched around the grounds, headed by the White Sulphur Band.

They spent the remainder of the day recounting their experiences in Dixie Land.

On the second day the crowd was immense, but orderly and seemed to get a full measure of enjoyment up to 1 o'clock, when a shower of rain and the threatening aspect of the weather caused many to leave the grounds.

Only a fair-sized crowd attended Saturday. Col. A. T. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, was there and made a speech which was well received. At 4 o'clock Commander McQuithy, with a few appropriate remarks, closed the exercises, and the people, amid hearty good wishes, left for their homes.

Much of the enjoyment of the occasion was due to the good playing of the White Sulphur Band.
 The boys are playing for the Hazel Green Fair this week, and have several engagements ahead.

TOBACCO MARKET.—From Louisville Courier-Journal.—Saturday Evening, Aug. 22.—The market has been a little more satisfactory this week. The cooler weather and reports of damage by worms and heat have been aided by the slight improvement in business feeling. Buyers have been more numerous, and for color grades there has been active competition at somewhat higher prices. The specialties that are always in request and nearly all useful kinds of leaf have also been firmer. In red Burley trash, nondescripts and the cheaper grades of lugs there has been no change. This is also true of dark tobacco, with the exception of special expert grades.

These have done, perhaps, a little better than hold their own; other qualities have been as low as ever.
 The market opened Tuesday in a discouraging manner. Not all the buyers had returned, and prices were in nowise better than had been offered before the holiday, except on some choice rehandled hogheads. Rejections were very large.
 Wednesday there was a better feeling and the offerings were also improved. In consequence the market closed more satisfactorily.
 Thursday conditions were much the same, except that the offerings were not so good and rejections were larger. Friday the sales were small and unchanged.

While the better feeling is manifested to the extent already mentioned, the Quotation Committee has not deemed it advisable to alter quotations as yet. There have been many sales of choice leaf which have brought very good prices, much better than could have been secured a month ago. There were sales of color at from $15 to $21 per 100 lbs.

BATH TOBACCO SALES IN LOUIS-VILLE.—Aug. 19th.—4 hds. leaf $9.60 to 7; 37 lugs, $6.20 to 4.60; 24 trash, $3.50 to 1.80.

Aug. 20th.—1 hbd. lugs at $6.50; 3 trash, $2.70 to 1.

PERSONAL.

A. H. Lane, of Sharpsburg, was in town the first of the week.

M. S. Tyler, of Mt. Sterling, was in town Thursday on law business.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Peed, of Grassy Lick, visited their son Geo.
 A. last week.

Charley Keatens went last week to spend a few days at his old home at Hillsboro.

Mrs. Sallie Richards left for Georgetown Tuesday, after several weeks' visit to relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Day, of Yocum, were here last Thursday on a visit to their son, James F.

Ollie Coons took a vacation last week and visited friends in Mt.
 Sterling and Stepstone vicinity.

Mrs. John Gillon and daughters, Ellen and Annie, of Indianapolis, are visiting friends in town and county.

Mrs. S. W. Bowden and little daughter Olive left on Monday for a several weeks' visit to her parents in Carter county.

Mr. and Mrs. James Emmons were called to the bedside of Mrs.
 Emmons' mother, Mrs. Rankins, who is very sick in Fleming county.

 guests of C. C. Hazelrigg's family, and are receiving the warm greetings of their many friends.

Wm. H. Elam, late of Morgan county, has moved to the home of Neri Swetnam, his son-in-law, on White Oak, and will make his home there. We welcome him to Bath county.

Elder John G. Peart, of Salt Lake City, Utah, has returned to this county, accompanied by Elder Thos. R. Reeve, of Virgin City, Washington Co., Utah, and both will continue the work of pros-elytizing for the Mormon Church.

Chapman Young, of Louisville, came last week on a visit to his relatives and friends. Chapman is a full-fledged lawyer now and is starting on what promises to be a distinguished career. He is finely equipped for his chosen profession and is a young man of superior natural parts. His friends were all glad to note his rise on the ladder of fame.

CORRESPONDENCE.

East Fork of Flat Creek.

Several from here attended the Reunion at Salt Lick.

Sam Viece sold a male calf to Jas.
 Vanlandingham for $12. George M. Viece sold six shoats to David Sorrell for 3c per pound.

The big revival that has been going on at Fairview Church, conducted by Bros. Boots and Roden closed Sunday night of last week, without any additions.

Mrs. Foster P. Colvert, of Lick Branch, and Mrs. G. W. Risner, of East Fork, were the guests of Mrs.
 S. O. Doggett and daughter, of near Reynoldsville, Sunday last week.

Middle City.

The Reunion is over and no person hurt.

Miss Emma Pierce, of Ashland, is visiting her parents this week.

Wm. Cook and family are visiting Charles Bailey, at Freestone, this week.

Mrs. Betsy Green, of Owingsville, was the guest of Mrs. Mag Cook last Sunday.

Mrs. A. J. Williams has returned home, after a week's visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Kason, in Rowan county.

Misses Annie Bell, Tillie Jones and Nellie Williams, of Moore's Ferry, were the guests of Mrs. Ada Cook last week.

Forge Hill.

Miss Amanda Williams is better.
 Mrs. R. W. Ferguson is very ill with typhoid fever.

E. E. Warren, of Franklin Co., was in our midst Sunday.

Miss Annie Atchison, of Franklin county, is visiting relatives here.

Little Ula Parker, of Lexington, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Garner.

Elder H. T. Moore, of Ashland, visited his nephew J. M. Moore's family the past week and preached to a large congregation here Sunday evening.

Arthur Carpenter, who had been in our midst for several weeks past, left last week to visit relatives in Morgan county, after which he will return to his home, in Gatesville, Texas.

Wyoming.

Miss Jennie Bradley, of Fleming Co., is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Lou Templeman visited relatives in Owingsville last week.

J. Tilford Estill is attending the Institute in Owingsville this week.

Quite a crowd from Owingsville attended the baptizing here Sunday.

Messrs. Ed Moxley and Oscar Donaldson, of near Sharpsburg, spent Sunday here.

Misses Addie Newman, Julia Walton and Rosa Johnson, all of Grange City, visited Mrs. Ella Myers Sunday.

Misses Nannie Ralls, of Sharps-burg, and Ruth Hutchesson, of Owingsville, visited Miss Jessie Atchison one day last week.

A very successful meeting has been going on here, conducted by Elders Porter and Farrer. A few converts were made, who were bat-tized on Sunday afternoon. The meeting will soon come to a close.

Steopstone.

Johnny Karriek, Jr., has gone to the Hazel Green fair.

day night, Sept. 4th, for the benefit of the Church. Everybody is cordially invited to come.

Elder A. C. Carnahan, of Levee neighborhood, will preach at Corinth Church Monday night, Aug.
 24. Wednesday night following Elder R. T. Maxey will conduct a week's meeting.

There are several cases of malarial fever in this neighborhood.
 Among those on the list are Mrs.
 B. F. Myers, Mrs. Wm. Ragan, H.
 A. Phipps and daughter Rosa, and Clifford McClain.

Knob Lick.

Very warm again.

Showery, with high winds.

Luther Rawlings had a cow killed by lightning Friday night.

Wm. Moore and Miss Nora Utterback took a trip to Ashland, among the many others that went Sunday.

Ed Barnes took a load of melon to Sharpsburg last week. The demand was good, but there was very little free silver to buy the juicy melon with.

From the amount of travel over the road here there could not have been near half as many as formerly attended the Reunion; another case of the lack of free silver.

[Will give your political article and reply next week. Our correspondent started out saying "Seissors!" and if we were to immerse him repeatedly in floods of fact and incontrovertible argument until he couldn't gasp "Seissors!" any longer he would crucify our satisfaction on a cross formed with his fingers, making the sign of the "seissors" defiant to the last.—
 Editor.]
